Romans 13:13,14/I Corinthians 6:18/I Thessalonians 4:3

4. The believer that desires to run that he might obtain God’s approval must show self-control by denying the desires of his own will, by denying the entanglements of the world, and by denying the enticements that serve as temptations to his flesh. T or F?

5. How may you apply this principle to your life?

Daily Application
Wednesday

1. Summarize I Corinthians 9:25b

2. a. Why do runners strive to reach the finish line? b. What does the word “corruptible” mean? c. Will the prizes a victorious athlete receives provide true and lasting benefits? d. What will believers receive if they obey God in the way that He expects? e. Are God’s present blessings and eternal crowns corruptible?

a. _____
b. _____
c. _____
d. _____
e. _____

3. Look up and give the gist of the following verses:
Philippians 4:1

II Timothy 4:8

James 1:12

4. If we make spiritual progress and become the type of believers God can bless, we will reap the crown of rejoicing (for labouring for the Lord), the crown of righteousness (for looking for the Lord), and the crown of life (for living for the Lord). T or F?

5. How may you apply this principle to your life?

Daily Application
Thursday

1. Summarize I Corinthians 9:26

2. a. Will a runner get to the finish line if he is uncertain of where he is going? b. Should we simply do things without certainty of whether it is right or wrong? c. - c. _____
- d. _____
- e. _____

3. Look up and paraphrase the following verses:
Deuteronomy 30:17,18

Psalms 81:9,10

Revelation 4:10,11

4. We ought to be very careful not to let other "gods" come before the true God, because the worship of these false "gods" (television, sports, celebrities) leads us astray, offer no deliverance, and therefore deserve no worshipful honour. T or F?

5. How may you apply this principle to your life?

Daily Application
Wednesday

1. Summarize I Corinthians 10:8 ("fornication" is "sexual sin")

2. a. Read Numbers 25:1-3. b. After years in the desert, why do you suppose the Israelites began to commit sexual sin? c. Can discontent with God's provisions lead to coveting a person as well as a thing? d. What did their fornication lead to? e. Does breaking one barrier often lead to the breaking of other barriers?

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____
- d. _____
- e. _____

3. Look up and paraphrase the following verses:
I Corinthians 6:13,15,19

I Thessalonians 4:3,4

I Corinthians 7:2,3

4. The sin of fornication (sexual sin) is a very serious sin, in that it defiles the human temple of God, it violates the clearly revealed will of God, and it nullifies one of the very purposes that God has given for marriage (sexual satisfaction). T or F?

5. How may you apply this principle to your life?

Daily Application
Thursday

1. Summarize I Corinthians 10:9 (“tempt” means “to test God”)

2. a. Read Numbers 21:4-6. b. Because of their lengthy time in the desert, what did the people begin to feel? c. What did their failure to deal with discouragement lead them to do? d. Do you think God had previously warned them against complaining? e. If we refuse to obey God after repeated warnings, what are we in effect saying?

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____
- d. _____
- e. _____

3. Look up and paraphrase the following verses:
Genesis 6:3

Proverbs 29:1

Hebrews 3:7-11

4. God’s patience with our sin is not unlimited, and there will eventually come a point when God will stop dealing mercifully with us, when He will stop reproofing us, and when He will stop blessing us – all due to our hardened hearts.. T or F?

5. How may you apply this principle to your life?

Daily Application
Friday

1. Summarize I Corinthians 10:10 (to “murmur” means to “complain”)

2. a. Read Numbers 14:2-4; 26,27. b. Who allows or brings about the negative circumstances we face in our lives? c. Why does God let negative circumstances to come upon us? d. If God allows these things, Who are we really complaining against when we complain? e. Should God take our complaining against Him as a small thing?
